It is claimed:

(Currently amended) A new and distinct cultivar of Dahlia plant named 'Melody LisaLizza' substantially, as herein shown and described, which:

- 1. Forms double, pink bi-colored ray florets and yellow-colored disc florets.
- 2. Exhibits a vigorous, upright, and mounded growth habit.